State of Law Department Operations 2018: Innovation, Data and Collaboration

Learn how legal departments are optimizing their operations and how law firms can deliver value. This session includes a state of the market report based on data from both Acritas and Thomson Reuters research studies and Tracker and Q&A with legal operations professionals. Discussion topics include:

1. the top areas where legal departments globally are innovating, the challenges in implementing innovation and how these challenges have been overcome;
2. the key metrics being used by legal departments which are considered effective and how they are being used to demonstrate value add and efficiency gains; and
3. how external lawyers see in-house failing and what best practice looks like compared with how external counsel deliver value in the eyes of their clients.

9:20 AM - 10:20 AM  Building a Winning Team: Three Time Super Bowl Champion and Venture Capitalist Brent Jones

Brent Jones spent most of his twelve-year career with the National Football League as a tight end with the San Francisco 49ers. He earned three Super Bowl rings and was honored as the NFL’s Bart Starr Award recipient for outstanding character in the home, on the field and in the community. In 2000 he co-founded Northgate Capital, a venture capital and private equity firm in the Silicon Valley area.

Hear what it takes for an organization to make it to the Super Bowl and how a football player can break into and succeed in the venture capital arena. Brent will share coaching strategies and sales techniques that you can take back to inspire your own teams.

Brent Jones, Venture Capitalist and Former Tight End, San Francisco 49ers

10:20 AM - 10:45 AM  Networking Break

Meet Brent Jones, see his Super Bowl rings and take some selfies.

10:45 AM - 12:45 PM  Designing Client-Centered Solutions: A Design Thinking Workshop

In this two-hour hands-on workshop, Andy Peterson and Kate White of Design Build Legal will teach us about design thinking and how it can be used to design client-centered solutions and services that lead to greater client loyalty and new business opportunities.

During the session, we will hear directly from in-house counsel about the operational challenges and pain points facing corporate legal departments, and will work in small groups to craft opportunity statements, rapidly generate ideas, and develop prototypes to make our ideas visual. Participants will walk away with the ability to bring design thinking mindsets and techniques back to their teams and organizations in order to design client-centered legal services and solutions.
