

The Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Boardroom

Overview

The Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Boardroom is designed to provide diversity and inclusion leaders from law and accounting firms and companies that retain their services, a members-only forum for energetic and strategic discussion. All discussions are Boardroom Confidential. The Leadership Boardroom summits will include discussions about timely, relevant issues such as:

- Current events that impact workplace environments
- The Big Tickets: Gender, Race, Sexuality, Religion, Nationality, Ethnicity, Ability, Class
- Gender versus ethnicity – two sides of the same coin?
- Beyond Diversity and Inclusion – much more than just a seat at the table
- The ever-changing definition of diversity and inclusion in a global professional services firm Disruptors to the status quo and creating new competitive strategies and models
- Benefits of a genuinely diverse firm/Challenges posed by non-diverse work environments
- The evolving role and responsibilities of the Diversity and Inclusion Leaders
- Motivating and driving change – how to engage and speed the process
- Integration with other C-suite leaders
- Megatrends – how they influence and impact our clients and our firms
- Critical elements for establishing alignment with clients
- Succession planning for global key client accounts
- Creating and promoting thought leadership
- Innovations and strategies for competing with non-traditional business models and teams
- Leadership attributes and models required to achieve planning and implementation success
- Best practices for implementation success
- Dashboards, metrics, and analytics
- Strategies for aligning firm, office, practice, and individual planning

Boardroom Offerings in 2021

- ✓ One and one-half-day facilitated roundtable discussions around April/May and September/October timeframes annually (virtually or in-person or a combination)
- ✓ Strong peer-to-peer networking group with individuals who establish and define the future for professional service firms
- ✓ Confidential meeting environment, hosted by a member firm, by invitation only

Meeting Format

All meetings will include facilitated conversations of topics identified in pre-meeting phone interviews with Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Boardroom members. The in-person meetings will consist of a professional development segment presented by a market-leading authority in the field of diversity and inclusion in the professional services environment. The general meeting format is a plenary session: a highly interactive discussion on identified topics.
